

PDK-UT Presents
Creative Teaching Strategies with Technology

Tuesday March 8, 2005
7:30 p.m.

Ontario Institute for Studies in Education
252 Bloor St. W, Toronto
Room 4-426

Explore creative teaching strategies with Technology through a Distance Education program designed at University of Waterloo by Eleanor Pierre, Al Morgan and Megan Jack.

Prof. Alan Morgan is in the Department of Earth Sciences, Eleanor Pierre is an Instructional Designer, Distance Education, who is of course a Past President of University of Toronto Chapter, and a well-known presenter on creativity, and Megan Jack, is a Web Developer in the Distance Education department.

Part of the session will showcase the actual course in Earth Science. There will be time for questions and conversation.

Sign Up Form

Please mail the lower portion of this form by Friday February 25, 2005, to:
Susan Seidman, 13 Raglan Avenue, Toronto, ON, M6C 2K7 or e-mail to: info@pdk-ut.ca

Kappans Number attending: _____

Guests: Number attending: _____

Member's Name: _____

Telephone: _____

Guest(s) Name(s): _____

Telephone: _____

ALL KAPPANS ARE ENCOURAGED TO INVITE GUESTS INTERESTED IN our GOALS AND ACTIVITIES . Thanks for your early reservation. The volunteers who organize this event appreciate your thoughtfulness!
DON'T FORGET! CHECK www.pdk-ut.ca for the latest PDK news!