

Presentation of the Outstanding Educator Award to:

Heather-jane Robertson

teacher, writer, researcher, speaker

IN CANADA Columnist for the PHI DELTA KAPPAN

Heather-jane Robertson

The Foreseeable Future of Schools

This presentation will examine the most important trends that will shape public education for the next generation. Some of these developments offer us an enormous opportunity to finally realize public education's promise, but others are much more troubling. What happens when education becomes the most coveted prize of all in a world where 'the winner takes all?'

When: Wednesday, April 20, 2005

6:00 p.m. - Social hour
7:00 - Dinner
8:15 - Presentations
Annual General Meeting

Where: The Faculty Club, University of Toronto

41 Willcocks St. (east off Spadina, north of College, south of Bloor)
PARKING: At Graduate Residence Building: entrance on Glen Morris St., 1 block N of Spadina and Harbord OR St. George Parking Lot: entrance at 103 St. George, N of Harbord St. across from the Roberts Library

Cost: Kappans $45, Guests $48, Students $25, Cash Bar

We look forward to seeing you. Bring a guest to share in the fellowship of PDK!

Please make your cheque payable to "Phi Delta Kappa" and submit it along with the information below by Wednesday, April 13, 2005 to: Susan Seidman, 13 Raglan Ave., Toronto, ON, M6C 2K7 (416 656-6929)

..... Please detach here

Name _____ E-Mail Address _____

Address _____ Phone (____) _____

Guests' names: _____ Amount enclosed: _____

Number attending April 20, 2005 ____ . Choose: vegetarian dinners ____ chicken dinners _____